“Hard times don’t creates ‘heroes’. It is during the hard times when ‘hero’ within us is revealed” ..... Bob Reley

Corporate sector is all together a different kind of world. It is a union of different types of businesses, industries etc where everyone’s sole aim is to get to the top. It all starts with business and ends with business. Agribusiness has been and will continue to be lifeline of the Indian economy. In order to provide the skilled manpower to agro-industries, the great visionaries of the University have started a post-graduation degree programme in Agribusiness Management at College of Agriculture, Pune since 2008, for the agricultural graduates, belonging the farming community. Up till now, about 257 students have taken business education and excelling their future in the business world. Most of them have put their foot prints in business, entrepreneur and in service sectors. Within 3 years of its inception, MBA (Agri) degree programme have achieved ISO 9001:2008 certification for its Quality Management Education. Once again, this MBA (Agri) programme have confirmed ISO 9001:2015 certification for its Quality Management System. This programme is recognized throughout the world and this symbol is testament to our commitment to quality and can be used a doorway to future business success and development.

It gives me immense pleasure to continue everlasting ties with Alumni Association of MBA (Agri) of College of Agriculture, Pune (AAMBAP). The Alumni of MBA (Agri) of College of Agriculture, Pune is our prized possession and valued ambassadors and we crave for their continued association with us. Super Heroes are an integral part of MBA (Agri) fraternity, present achievements and future hopes. They have impressed their foot prints of success on the every corners of the Agribusiness sector The Super Heroes of

Thus, I take this opportunity to welcome to this great heritage campus for business education, interaction with students. I firmly believe that this is not just an invitation but a step towards long lived bonds of mutual relationship between us.

From the desk of Department of Agribusiness Management, I would like express warm wishes for their future endeavors to all the fraternity of MBA (Agri).
